Outsourcing Solutions

Restaurant operators wear many hats, but Lucemio makes your life easier.

You're responsible for creating the experiences that will delight your customers so that they keep coming back. But, you're also responsible for sales, costs, inventory and staffing. It's a lot! But, Lucemio can take a lot off your plate so that you can focus just on creating great customer experiences. We not only do restaurant reporting, that tracks performance, but we can also help increase sales and control costs. We can use your POS data to understand customer behaviors, improve forecasting, optimize staffing levels and can even provide you with the insights needed to create more effective promotions and menus!

BPO

Benefits & Process

Key Benefits

Improved Outcomes

Our BPO helps you to easily resolve blind spots within your business processes by increasing visibility in key business areas.

Competitive Advantage

The ability to flex your resources up or down augments your cost structure while ensuring you receive actionable analytics and reports.

Improved ROI

Our BPO leverages global talent managed from the United States to assure you quality, compelling economics and improved ROI.

Core Process

Build

We'll agree on the frequency and deadlines for the deliverables to be transferred to us and outline the requirements for each of those deliverables.

Access

We'll work with you to ensure that we have secure access to the datasets that we need to be able to perform our manual analysis on your behalf.

Retrieve

Once completed you'll retrieve your deliverables from your own system or our secured storage Cloud and sign-off on those deliverables.
